Mr. Cooper mentioned that Mr. Mar did receive the certified letter but is still waiting to set up a meeting time.

Mr. Cooper will be taking the application and permit fee schedule to the zoning commission meeting on Wednesday for a final reading.

Mr. Cooper mentioned that one on the cemetery mowing bidders had a concern with the sentence on page 2, paragraph 3, which states: The policy shall name the Licking Township Board of Trustees as Additional Named Insured. The Trustees will contact the Assistant Prosecutor Eric Fox to see if the sentence can be taken out.

Mr. Acord mentioned that a meeting was held at the Township Hall on February 16 regarding a centralized sanitary sewer system for the Jacksontown area. Any decision will be made by the Licking County Commissioners and the EPA. They hope to have their decision by April 1st. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Miller both mentioned that the decision will impact land use in the township and that there are health issues that need to be taken care of. Mr. Cooper mentioned that even through the Trustees do not have a direct involvement that they need to do what is needed to represent the township. A discussion followed.

Cindy Fields mentioned that the letter Mr. Miller gave to Mr. Snedden at the last meeting was not the one that was read to them and she asked for a copy of the original letter which states that it was initiated by the sheriffs office. A discussion took place regarding the bank. Cindy Fields wanted it stated for the record that the pin that was driven at the corner post on Mr. Sneddens' property is not a survey pin. Mr. Miller stated that the pins are location pins or called rebar pins so that if the fence is taken down by either Mr. Snedden or the next owner, we will be able to see where the eastside of the road is. Mr. Miller said if he called them survey pins he stands corrected. Cindy Fields suggested to the Trustees that when citizens are trying to work in a trustworthy manor with them that they, as elected officials, should not venture from their duties and losing the trust in the people that they serve and behave in the upright manor and to provide proper responses as requested. Cindy Fields would like clarification on the speed limit on Somerset Road by the next meeting.

A discussion followed.
