CORRESPONDENCE:

1. Public Hearing notice from the Licking County Planning.
2. Received ODOT salt purchase agreement.

Steve Patterson mentioned that the truck lost a wheel and that it will be repaired at Ours.

Mr. Acord gave the Fire Co. report. He mentioned that the squad is back and they are making a lot of runs. Mike asked that everyone clear their addresses so that they can find your property if needed. Charles Prince said that he will place an ad in The Beacon.

Mr. Miller said that he has nothing to report from Tim Lollo or Jim Miller regarding Charles Krumm but should have something at the next meeting.

Mr. Hart, in regards to Charles Krumm, said that there were many comments that Charles had made in error. Charles had said that he worked something out with Mark Ricketts and Paul & Cindy Ripko, Mr. Hart said that on February 2 he had talked with Paul & Cindy Ripko and they, as of that date, have never spoke with Charles Krumm. Mr. Hart asked them, in front of Mark Ricketts, if they were opposed to closing Lake Drive, in which they are. Mark Ricketts informed Mr. Hart that he had offered to purchase from Charles Krumm a 60ft wide strip for his personal use along the eastside of Mr. Krumms property from Lake Drive to the county road. If that's the case, Mr. Hart does not see any requirements that would fall on us regarding Brookdale. Mr. Hart did not get the impression from Mark Ricketts that he willing to build a road to county specs and donate it to the township. Mr. Hart mentioned, as an individual trustee, in regards to what Charles Krumm has said to him, that he has lost all credibility in Charles Krumms comments. In a telephone conversation with Charles Krumm, Mr. Hart said that he asked him to okay Joe Walker to give him a permit in which he said that Joe Walker said that Mr. Hart was the hold up and that Mr. Walker needed his ok. Mr. Hart informed him that the Trustees do not direct Mr. Walker on how to make his decisions as a zoning inspector. In a conversation Mr. Hart had with Mr. Walker, he told Mr. Hart that he did not say that to Charles Krumm. Charles Krumm asked Mr. Hart if Jim Miller from the prosecutors office had called him to straighten him out. Mr. Hart, at the time, had not received any communication from Jim Miller, but he would call and follow up with Jim Miller. Mr. Hart did have a subsequent discussion with Jim Miller and that in no way did he tell Charles Krumm that he was going to call Mr. Hart and straighten him out. Charles Krumm also told Mr. Hart that Jim Miller and Tim Lollo were okay with closing the road and that Mr. Acord and Mr. Miller were helping him but that he was the hold up. Mr. Hart told Charles Krumm that if that is the case that he was not aware of it and that he would call Dave Miller. Mr. Hart did call Mr. Miller who said that he had many conversations with Charles Krumm that day and that he did not tell him that they were okay with him closing the road. Charles also mentioned that he was tired of Mr. Hart, Paul & Cindy Ripko and Mr. Cash getting in his personal business and that he would get a lawyer. Mr. Hart explained to him the Mr. Cash has nothing to do with this issue. During the conversation Charles kept getting louder and louder and Mr. Hart told him that he was done talking to him and that he needs to do whatever he has to do and he hung up.

Mr. Acord mentioned that he was never in a meeting with Charles Krumm and Brad Mercer as Charles had stated in the previous meeting.

Mr. Miller mentioned that they have no intention on closing the road at this time. The Trustees agreed.

Mr. Miller mentioned that they are plowing the best they can with the equipment which keeps breaking down. Mr. Hart asked if there are local contractors that can be used for plowing if needed.

Robert Snedden mentioned that there is no right of way and that he does not want the snow plowed on his property. Mr. Hart said that it is their job to clear the road.

Richard Cash mentioned that the hauling cost for the cinders out of Beverly will cost $23 delivered - $11 ton for hauling and $12 for cinders. He will give the information the Mr. Hart.

Mr. Hart made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 8:31pm. Mr. Acord seconded the motion. Roll call: Hart, yes; Acord, yes; Miller, yes.
